OUT OF STATE APPLICATION FOR AUCTION FIRM GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

READ North Carolina Auctioneer Laws, Rules and Regulations: N.C.G.S. 85B, 21 NCAC 4B. These are available on the Board's website at www.ncalb.org.

READ CAREFULLY each provision of the application and the instructions. The application must be properly completed, signed, notarized, accompanied by all required documents, proper fees, and dated no more than thirty (30) days prior to when your application is received by the office of the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board (NCALB). It must be received, not postmarked, in the NCALB Office on, or before the Board deadline date established by the Board (dates enclosed). If any part of the application is incorrect or incomplete, or if required attachments are not included, the application may be returned, resulting in a delay in the licensing process.

The applicant on the auction firm application must be the owner, if the business is a sole proprietorship; a partner, if a partnership; an officer of the corporation, if incorporated, or a member manager, if a limited liability company.

Type or print legibly in ink, and mail the completed application to the Board office. Application may not be submitted by email or fax.

Remember to enclose a certified check, money order, or cashier's check payable to the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board (NCALB). If the funds are NOT submitted in the proper form and amount, the application will not be accepted. The application fee is non-fundable.

If applying for an Auction Firm License with a non-auctioneer as a designated person, a firm exam is required pursuant to N.C.G.S. 85B-4(g). This office will contact you either by email (preferred method) or phone regarding scheduling and other exam information. If you are an auctioneer licensed in NC, you are exempt from the firm exam.

RESTRICTIONS AND EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

Authority to transact business under a firm license is limited to the person or persons so designated in the application. The designated person or persons are required to satisfactorily pass a written examination on the Auctioneer Law and Rules. A currently licensed North Carolina auctioneer who is the designated person is not required to take the auction firm examination.

Licensed real estate brokers and real estate firms are exempt from the examination so long as they are involved in the selling of real property only (no personal property) at auction, and provided that they employ or associate themselves with a licensed auctioneer (requires Firm License) to handle those aspects of the transactions peculiar to the auctioneer profession.

The auction firm examination may be taken at the Board's office in Fuquay-Varina. Please contact the staff at (919)567-2844 for further information.

ESCROW ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS

N.C.G.S. § 85B-7.1 Handling Clients Funds of the Auctioneers Law, and 21 NCAC 4B .0603 of the Rules and Regulations specifies the requirements concerning escrow accounts. Money, which has come into your possession through an auction sale, which is payable to the auctioneer or firm, and any portion that belongs to others, may not be commingled with your own under any circumstances N.C.G.S. § 85B-8(a)(7). In addition, such funds must be deposited in a trust or escrow account in a bank or savings and loan association located in North Carolina, within three business days of receiving the funds. Funds, which are disbursed to the seller on auction day, are not subject to the escrow account requirements; however, the Law and Rules specify certain record keeping requirements.

If you have any questions concerning these requirements, you should contact this office.

IMPORTANT
Properly answering questions on the application

The North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board has the authority to deny a license if there is any misrepresentation by the applicant. Accordingly, read each question carefully on the application and answer correctly.

Have you ever been charged or arrested with a criminal offense (other than minor traffic offenses; DUI/DWI are not minor traffic offenses)? If yes, attach a separate statement giving complete details. You must disclose a charge or arrest even though it was later dismissed. Note: You will be asked about convictions in the following question.

Have you ever been convicted of any criminal offense (other than minor traffic offenses; DUI/DWI are not minor traffic offenses) or is there any criminal charge now pending against you? If yes, attach a separate statement giving complete details. If the final disposition of the matter is dismissal, there is no conviction. If you plead guilty, or are found guilty after trial or a fine is assessed and paid by the applicant on the initial charge or any related charge, this will be considered a conviction and must be disclosed.

The authority for the denial of a license is found in N.C.G.S. 85B-3.1(a)(3); N.C.G.S. 85B-8(a)(1); and 21 NCAC 4B .0404(a)(2) and (6), that state as follows:

N.C.G.S. 85B-3.1(a)(3)

(a) The Commission shall have the following powers and duties: ... (3) To deny, suspend, and revoke licenses pursuant to G.S. 85B-8 ...

N.C.G.S. 85B-8(a)(1)

(a) The following shall be grounds for the assessment of a civil penalty in accordance with G.S. 85B-3.1(b) or the denial, suspension, or revocation of an auctioneer, auctioneer apprentice or auction firm license: (1) Any violation of this Chapter or any violation of a rule or regulation duly adopted by the Commission...; and

21 NCAC 4B .0404(a)(2) and (6)

(a) The Board may assess a civil penalty in accordance with G.S. 85B-3.1(b) or deny, suspend, or revoke a license, or issue a letter of reprimand to a licensee, upon any of the following grounds: (2) violation of any provision of the Rules under 21 NCAC, Subchapter 4B ... (6) failure to properly, completely and fully complete an application or making any false statement or giving any false information in connection with an application for a license, renewal or reinstatement of a license...

North Carolina Auction Firm Examination Information

The examination was designed to determine if the designated person has a working knowledge of the Auctioneer Law and Rules. The examination involves a possible score of 100 points; with a required minimum score of 75 points to pass the examination.

Authority to transact business under a firm license is limited to the person or persons so designated in the application. The designated person or persons are required to satisfactorily pass a written examination on the Auctioneer Law and Rules prior to being licensed. A licensed auctioneer who is the designated person for a firm is not required to take the auction firm examination.

Licensed real estate brokers and real estate firms are exempt from the auction firm examination so long as they are involved in the selling of real property only at auction, and provided that they employ or associate themselves with a licensed auctioneer to handle those aspects of the transactions peculiar to the auctioneer profession.

The auction firm examination is given in Fuquay-Varina at the Board's offices. The office will contact you regarding the auction firm exam information upon receipt of the firm application, supporting documents, and fees. If you have any questions, you may contact the staff at (919)567-2844.

All applications and supporting documentation are subject to the approval of the Licensing Board.

INFORMATION THAT MAY BE HELPFUL IN PREPARING FOR THE EXAMINATION

1. Be thoroughly familiar with the North Carolina Auctioneers Law and the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board Rules and Regulations. There are available on the Board's website at www.ncalb.org.
2. On the Board's website under Resources is a video titled "Tips for Taking the Designated Person/Auction Firm Exam" that is very helpful as well as other informative information.
3. An applicant should have sufficient educational background to be able to read with comprehension.
4. Prior experience as an apprentice auctioneer, or any experience gained by working at auctions as a clerk, cashier, or groundsman will be helpful.

Persons experienced in the sale of goods or real estate at auction may be a helpful source of information.

EXAMPLES OF QUESTIONS ON THE AUCTION FIRM EXAMINATION

THE EXAMINATION INCLUDES MULTIPLE CHOICE AND LISTING QUESTIONS AS FOLLOWS:

Darken the appropriate letter on the answer sheet that represents your choice. Examples:

1. The Auctioneer Licensing Board may deny, suspend, or revoke a license upon which of the following grounds?
 - a) violation of any provision of Chapter 85B of the General Statutes
 - b) failure to possess truth, honesty and integrity
 - c) violation of any federal or state statute or rule relating to the auctioneering profession
 - d) any of these grounds
2. The annual fee to renew an auction firm license is:
 - a) $100.00
 - b) $150.00
 - c) $175.00
 - d) $200.00
3. In order to conduct an auction in North Carolina, a licensee must first have a written agreement with the owner of the property to be sold. The licensee is required to do which of the following:
 - a) the agreement must contain the terms and conditions upon which the auctioneer received the goods for sale
 - b) provide the owner with a signed copy of the agreement
 - c) keep at least one copy of the agreement for his own records for two years from the date of the agreement
 - d) all of the above are required by the licensee
4. If an auction is conducted "with reserve":
 - a) the auctioneer must sell to the highest bidder, regardless of price
 - b) a retraction of a bid automatically revives a previous bid
 - c) the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time prior to the announcement of completion of sale
 - d) the auctioneer must announce the "reserve" amount

Listing:

Place the correct answer in the appropriate space on your answer sheet. Examples:

1. The Auctioneer Law requires that written agreements of auction sales be maintained by the licensee for what period of time?
2. List two violations of the Auctioneers Law or Rules that can serve as grounds for suspension or revocation of an auctioneer's/auction firm's license.
3. Licenses that have been lapsed for more than how many months may not be renewed?
4. The Auctioneer Recovery Fund must maintain a minimum level of what amount for recovery and guaranty purposes?

Answers will be found in the NC Auctioneers Law and North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board Rules and Regulations, N.C.G.S. 85B, 21 NCAC 4B, and Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) § 25.2.328 Sale by Auction.
