GOVERNOR APPOINTS ALLISON H. PANT AS NEW PUBLIC MEMBER OF NCALB

Governor Roy Cooper has appointed a new public member to the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board to serve a 3-year term expiring June 30, 2021. Congratulations to Allison H. Pant of Raleigh.

Ms. Pant is a licensed attorney who works as a REALTOR®/Broker with Keller Williams Preferred Realty in Raleigh, NC. She grew up in Creswell, NC in Washington County, where she spent summers and free time working on her father's farm. Ms. Pant is a graduate of the North Carolina School of Science and Math, Georgetown University (Business Administration), and the University of North Carolina School of Law (with honors). Prior to her current position with Keller Williams Preferred Realty, she worked as Senior Contracts Specialist with Red Hat, Inc., where Ms. Pant was responsible for negotiating and managing real estate brokerage, construction, project management, software, and vendor contracts for Global Workplace Solutions group. Previously, she had been an Associate in the Vandeventer Black, LLP law firm, engaged in litigation, client counseling, data and damages analysis, and legal research and publication.

Pant joins current members William B. Lilly, Jr. – Chairman, Gary Boyd – Vice Chairman, and Members Lisa York and Willie Johnson on the Board.

Sincere gratitude goes to former NCALB Public Member Lisa L. Brown for her commitment and dedication to the Board and service to the State.
