

Continuing Education Exemption for Licensed Auctioneers Age 65 or Older

Pursuant to a unanimous vote of the NC Auctioneer Licensing Board and effective immediately, Auctioneers who are at least 65 years old and have been continuously licensed in North Carolina for at least the previous five years are exempt from Continuing Education requirements for annual license renewal purposes.

The CE exemption does not apply to Auction Firm Designated Persons, unless they are otherwise exempted licensed Auctioneers, as described above.

Additionally, any licensed Auctioneer or Auction Firm Designated Person experiencing a hardship may submit a written request to the Board for a CE waiver for the next license renewal period. Waiver requests must be in written form and detail the reason(s) for the request. Waiver requests are considered by the Board on a case-by-case basis.

Wake Technical Community College Adds Auctioneering Program

Congratulations to Wake Tech Auction Academy, North Carolina's newest Auctioneering School. Classes will begin on January 11, 2022, meeting on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in Raleigh. The curriculum and instructors have been approved for accreditation by NCALB, and students will be eligible to apply for licensure upon graduation.

Wake Tech Auction Academy joins Carolina Auction Academy (Stanly Community College) and Lenoir Community College Auctioneer Program as in-person programs currently being offered in North Carolina.

There are 16 NCALB accredited Auctioneering Education programs throughout the nation with approved curricula and instructors. They feature a variety of training options for students.

For the full list of all 16 programs, contact information, and links to their websites, please visit: <http://www.ncalb.org/schools.cfm>.

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

NCALB DECEMBER 2021 NEWSLETTER

NC Auctioneer Licensing Board | 108 Ber Creek Drive, Fuquay-Varina, NC 27526

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by info@ncalb.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!