

JULY 2019 NCALB NEWSLETTER

NEW BOARD MEMBER BUCK LATTIMORE APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR

Governor Roy Cooper has appointed Buck Lattimore of Raleigh as a new member of the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board, to serve a 3-year terms expiring June 30, 2022. Congratulations, Mr. Lattimore! He fills the seat previously held by William B. Lilly, Jr. of Charlotte.

Mr. Lattimore is a North Carolina licensed Auctioneer and Real Estate Broker. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Government from Wofford College, and is also a graduate of the Mendenhall School of Auctioneering and the J.Y. Monk Real Estate School. He is an active member of the Auctioneers Association of North Carolina (AANC), where he has served on the Board of Directors and as an instructor for continuing education classes for auctioneers. Mr. Lattimore has more than 38 years of senior management experience. Before his retirement in 2009, he was Chairman of the North Carolina Industrial Commission. He also worked as Deputy Commissioner of Insurance and was Vice President of George Shinn & Associates, where he helped the Charlotte NC company win the Charlotte Hornets NBA franchise. He served six years in a Mechanized Infantry Unit of the Army National Guard, and he is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Raleigh and Apex American Legion Post #124. Mr. Lattimore is a former NCDRC licensed North Carolina Superior Court Mediator.

Lattimore joins current members Gary Boyd – Chairman, Lisa York – Vice Chairwoman, and Members Willie Johnson and Allison Pant on the Board.

Much gratitude goes to Will Lilly for his commitment and dedication to the Board and service to the State through his role as a Board member, including the past 12 months as Chairman.

NCALB OFFICER ELECTIONS

As briefly referenced in the preceding article, on July 8, 2019 the members of the NC Auctioneer Licensing Board elected Gary Boyd as Chairman and Lisa York as Vice Chairwoman for the year ending June 30, 2020. Congratulations Mr. Boyd and Ms. York!

IMPORTANT NOTICE!!!

This email newsletter is sent to all NCALB licensees whether you are in ACTIVE or LAPSED STATUS. Being in Lapsed status is allowable as long as a licensee goes no longer than 2 license years without renewing to regain Active again and does not engage in auction activity.

HOWEVER, it is a serious violation to conduct any auction activity (including signing a contract for an auction) without being in Active status. Please keep this in mind to avoid any potential disciplinary issues, and please contact NCALB at (919) 567-2844 or info@ncalb.org if you have any questions.

WELCOME NEW LICENSEES!

(Issued Through July 8, 2019)
