Chairperson Corner

Auctioneering licensing renewals have increased from last year's numbers. The licensing board will be funding the continuing education classes. We encourage everyone to take advantage of the free courses to earn continuing education credits that are required.

Our complaints against auctioneers are reduced from last year and we would like to commend everyone in the auctioneering profession who has worked to cause this resulting decline.

We are "your" auctioneering licensing board and if you have any recommendations, complaints or suggestions, please feel free to contact us. You are cordially invited to attend any of our monthly board meetings.

Sincerely,
Clegg Grady

Continuing Education

All auctioneers, apprentice auctioneers, and designated person(s) of an auction firm must have 4 hours of continuing education credit in order to renew their licenses. The new fiscal year starts on July 1, 2013 and ends on June 30, 2014. These 4 hours of continuing education must be in the NCALB office by May 15, 2013. You may fax (919-567-2865) or email (info@ncalb.org) your CE hours. Renewal applications will be mailed to those who have satisfied the continuing education requirement toward the end of May.

Below is a list of Board approved continuing education courses. These CE courses are funded by the North Carolina Auctioneer Licensing Board. Additionally, other Board approved continuing education courses may be found at our website www.ncalb.org, including online continuing education. Real Estate CE's and any seminar/course that will benefit you in the auction profession is acceptable.

Contact the AANC at 919-876-0687 to register.
